FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARITABLE VIDEO GAME TOURNAMENT THIS WEEK

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., March 17th, 2021—non-profit organization, Home Front Military Network (HFMN) and competitive gaming event center, Colorado Community E-sports announced their second charitable video game tournament is to be held on Saturday, March 20th, 2021. This event will be hosted by Colorado Community E-sports and all tournament proceeds will go to benefit HFMN.

Home Front Military Network Board Member Brent Sabati explains, “The idea behind having a gaming tournament was to help reach some of those younger audiences and donors. Then, when 2020 and social distancing caused the cancellation of most in-person events—our first gaming tournament (that we had back in October) became one of the more feasible fundraisers HFMN could host that year. Now, we’re doing it again because we wanted to build on the initial success!”

Players will choose between competing in Rocket League or Call of Duty: Cold War. Tournament winners will receive a prize pool of up to $250 for Rocket League and up to $500 for Call of Duty. Sponsored by Art C. Klein Construction, Jacobs Engineering, Peregrine Consulting, and S.I.S.T.R., the event has a $15 registration fee for Rocket League and a $25 registration fee for Call of Duty. Players must pre-register at <https://matcherino.com/events/42809>. Those not competing but interested in viewing the tournament can watch online at https://www.twitch.tv/colorado_ces. Events start online at 11:00 A.M. (MST) on March 20th, 2021.
